Getting Started as a Sensual Secrets Consultant

As a Sensual Secrets Consultant, you will be making commission off of products sold through party sales, private sales and (optionally) web sales. Your commission for home party sales is 25% in your first year with yearly increases. Your average commission per show will be $100.00-$250.00 with more being easily attainable. You also receive bonuses three times a year and opportunities for other rewards through yearly contests (possibly even airfare for two to anywhere in North America).

The Application Process

The first step to becoming a Sensual Secrets Consultant is to submit the application form for review. Once that is done you may purchase your business kit ($250.00 plus GST) and sign the contract. Once this is done, Sensual Secrets will send out your training manual and videos. They will also order the following items for you, and will arrive within 2 weeks.

- 1000 professional, personalized business cards

Your Kit

As a Sensual Secrets Consultant, you are required to purchase your demonstration kit sometime before presenting your first party. There are the products you will present at your shows. Items purchased for your kit are all at a discounted rate of 45% off retail price. You can add items to your kit at any time during your time with the company. Each kit is customized for each consultant based on what is most popular and what can afford because people buy what they see. The cost for a basic starter kit is on average of $600.00 (plus GST). You will also need to purchase other items for you kit (such as a calculator, portfolio's, pens etc.). The company does not provide these items for you but they are all tax deductible.

For under $900.00, you can start your own business now!

Financial assistance is also available upon request.

You do not need your party kit to start earning money today. You can earn commissions now from private catalogue and website sales while you are in training!

Training

You do not need your demonstration kit to start training. First, if you have not been to see a Sensual Secrets party talk with a manager so you can either host or attend one - you want to know how it feels as a host/customer. Observe how you feel, what makes you comfortable, what makes you laugh. You will then attend five parties with an experienced consultant and assist them with their presentation. Exceptions apply for consultants in remote areas.

Website affiliate program

As a consultant with Sensual Secrets, you can choose to also have a personalized Sensual Secrets website. Here, customers can order products and you will earn a 20% commission. Processing the order is taken care of by Head Office. If you are not able to be a home party consultant, you can still become part of our web team by signing up for your own website. You can make money while you sleep!

The Team

At Sensual Secrets, you are part of a team. As a team, we meet twice per year to discuss business policies and procedures plus recent developments in sexual health and products with educational seminars and guest speakers. We also participate in a variety of tradeshow. This brands the company and helps to market you and your personal business through public exposure. Sensual Secrets expects you to attend the meetings and help with the tradeshow (these are at no cost to you). Sensual Secrets also provides you with access to a Yahoo! Group where all Sensual Secrets consultants can discuss situations, issues and products through online forums.

We are a strong community here at Sensual Secrets. We look forward to welcoming you as one of our Sensual Secrets Sisters!
