

What is a Sensual Party?

Lotions and Potions and things that hum in the night!

No it's not an orgy. Get as many of your friends as you can together and spend the evening talking about lust, love, sex and toys. Take the opportunity to conveniently buy adult products at low prices or even earn yourself free product by being the host of the party!

Traditionally these parties are for ladies only. But we know that it takes two to tango and so it is just as much fun to have your partner there with you! Men, women, alternative lifestyles – it's all good!

Here's how it works. You and your friends get together one evening and have one of our fun and informative consultants come into your home to present hundreds of products for a healthy and beautiful body and sex life. A cocktail in hand usually helps ease the nerves while you look, smell, feel and taste many items so you can tell whether it's the right product for you.

Once you and your friends have enjoyed the show you will each get the opportunity to make discrete purchases in the private shopping room. Being a host you receive up to 15% of those sales in free product for yourself plus other freebies. Not to mention 10% off for life after your show!

No worries though as no one is ever put on the spot or made to feel uncomfortable at these parties. All the Sensual Secrets Consultants go through training to learn all about the products and why you may want them. Maybe you want to be a Consultant and get a humungous tickle trunk for wholesale prices, be a sexual goddess and make great money? Host a party and see what the rave is all about!

A Sensual Secrets party is free to have, easy to set up, fun and informative – plus you get free stuff! For more information call 465.7410 or check out our website at www.sensalsecrets.org.
